The 400 Blows

April 17th, 2020 - Until 1959 François Truffaut

was known as the young notoriously savage critic for Cahier du Cinéma who had been banned from Cannes for his abrasive views With The 400 Blows he established himself as a filmmaker in his own right with a debut boasting acute emotional subtlety alongside its artful experimentation Truffaut's return to Cannes was triumphant and he left with the Best
