Full of the one-of-a-kind thrills and showbiz excitement that only the circus can create, this book is a guaranteed ticket to fun and adventure! Nota de la solapa s in town! Come join in the fun as Caldecott Medalist Peter Spier creates a circus like no other, in this exuberant celebration of the wonders of the big top. BiografÃa del autor On his arrival in the United States in 1952, PETER SPIER became one of this country's most popular and renowned illustrators. His books, acclaimed by critics and readers alike, have won numerous awards and honors:Â Noah's ArkÂ won the Caldecott Medal andÂ The Fox Went Out on a Chilly NightÂ was a Caldecott Honor Book.Â PeopleÂ was awarded the Christopher Medal and was also nominated for an American Book Award and received the National Mass Media Award from the National Conference of Christians and Jews for ""outstanding contributions to better human relations and the cause of brotherhood."" Mr. Spier was born and educated in Amsterdam. Before coming to the United States he served in the Royal Dutch Navy. He illustrated over one hundred books, and his work can be found in museums and private collections across the country. In addition to illustrating and writing, Mr. Spier was an avid and celebrated builder of model ships.
