"Pressestimmen Long considered required reading for shade gardeners, this classic reference has been recognized by the American Horticulture Society as one of the '75 Great American Garden Books.' American Gardener 20020731 The author's down-to-earth approach is not only highly credible, but also very entertaining. -- Marge Howard-Jones California Garden 20020924 Has a huge amount of information well written by someone with obvious hands-on experience. Compass 20021115 Schenk writes as though he is talking to you, and encourages you to use the necessary sequence of steps for success. -- Marty Figley Michigan Observer and Eccentric 20021031 Having grown several thousand plants in his New Zealand and North American gardens, the author's down-to-earth approach is not only highly credible, but also very entertaining. -- Marge Howard-Jones California Garden 20021022 The bilssful charm and grace of easeful green shade is echoed in the casual, lighthearted humour of the author's approach. -- Helen Chesnut Victoria Times Colonist 20021212 This classic reference book for shade gardens is very comprehensive. -- Bobbie Schwartz Buckeye 20020127 A treasure. Perennials 20030225 This book is a practical guide to planting a shade garden, but goes beyond that to help the gardener make the results aesthetically pleasing. -- Barbara Joe Hoshizaki Los Angeles International Fern Society Journal 20030218 An exceptional, well-written and organized guide to shade gardening for atmosphere, beauty, and personal satisfaction... An excellent gardening resource and a welcome, practical, highly recommended addition to personal and professional gardening reference collections. Library Bookwatch 20030422 A wonderfully written encyclopedia of shade plants. -- George Graine Virginia Master Gardeners Association Report 20030630 I wish that I had had (this book) to advise me forty years ago when we bought our property ... (Schenk's) plant lists are valuable for gardeners everywhere--even in the desert. -- John R. Dunmire Pacific Horticulture 20031106 This well-done book is written with knowledge and understanding. It is the best shade gardening book I've ever read. -- Natalie Walsh Schenectady Daily Gazette 20031009 This is the classic reference for shade gardening. Alberta Gardener 20041116 My first introduction to gardening for interest other than flowers. I'll always remember his comment about arranging a garden as though it were a party with plants and to make it look like all the plants are having fun. -- Victoria Shallow Spring Affair News 20050322
