

Mars Colony Legal Code How Much Law Do We Take With Us English Edition By O Kane Michael

There have been a few "international" jurisdictions in history. The international zone in Tangier. Shanghai in the 1930's. There is U.S. case law about what laws apply to crimes committed on ice flows in international waters. With so much interest in a manned mission to Mars, the colonization of Mars is no longer a question of "if," but "when?" What are the minimum legal requirements for operating the colony on Mars? Should Mars even have its own law? Why not just use the laws of the space-faring nations? But what if those laws conflict? The time to plan for a legal regime for the Mars Colony is now and not later. By the time the colonists land on Mars it will be too late. The Mars Colony Legal Code is not just an effort to answer the question, "how much law do we take with us?" but also, "and whose law?" It's no longer science fiction.
